

Year 1 Summer

Me, Myself & I

Writing:

A description of the chocolate room in Charlie and the chocolate factory using senses.

A description of our own bubble gum invention using senses.

Reading:

Phonics phase 5 revision

Comprehension

Using Epic to continue to encourage the love of reading.

Science:

All about me- labelling parts of the body.

To understand what the 5 sense are and what they are used for.

S&L:

Talk for writing.

Using ChatterKid to record our voices as different characters.

Music:

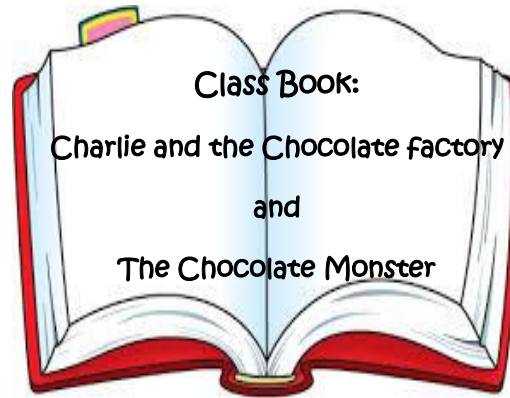

To listen to music.

To begin to experiment with different instruments.

Class Book:

Charlie and the Chocolate factory
and
The Chocolate Monster

History & Geography:

To begin to use world maps and atlases to identify countries and continents.

To use aerial photographs and local maps to find areas of interest.

Enrichment & RE:

The Young Leaders award- focussing on kindness, perseverance and teamwork.

Exploring the question 'what is it like to belong to a faith community?'

PE:

Athletics- building up skills for sports day.

Develop our throwing and catching through beanbag rounders.

Computing:

To continue to develop simple coding knowledge and skills.

Art and Design & Technology:

To study the work of Kandinsky.

To create own art work inspired by Kandinsky.

